Screen legend HEDY LEMARR was a woman many critics and fans alike regard as the most beautiful ever to appear in films. As a film star in the 1940s Hedy portrayed an allure that woman wanted and men lusted for. The 40s style was that of red lips, arched brows and feminine waves. The mysterious beauty.

Like the heat from a kiss that lingers on your cheek or the ripple of a wave that is felt long after the boat has passed, few things are as sensual as the lingering fragrance of a woman. Sillage (pronounced as see-yazh) is the term used to describe a scented trail left by the fragrance wearer. It comes from the French word for “wake”, as in the trail left in the sky by an airplane or on the water by a boat.

Generally, the most complimented fragrances are the ones with a definite sillage; however, the effect should be akin to the soft brush of a cat’s tail as it weaves past someone’s ankles rather than the claws-out pounce of a cougar. So how do you manage the balance between pounce versus purr-fection? It is somewhat possible to calibrate the throw of your scent: Perfume diffuses more (and lasts longer) when applied to well-moisturized skin than dry skin (think about how much more aware you are of fragrances in humid climates—same idea), and dabs of an eau de parfum, which is more concentrated, tend to project less than spritzes of an eau de toilette. It’s also easy to select a perfume according to environment—you might want a more discreet sillage in the office, for example, than you would at a party. The million-dollar question, since most of us stop being able to smell our own perfume once our noses become accustomed to it, is: how can we tell whether or not the trail we’re leaving behind is a good one? Glance back and see who’s lingering in your wake. Photo: Lucas Passmore

MODEL TURNED ACTRESS LEXI ATKINS

I caught the acting bug at a very very young age. I always had the urge to change who I was and what I wanted to do... which I never figured out what to call until recently... an actress!

I'm still in a bit of shock that I get to be sitting here answering questions like this since this path i'm on has been a dream of mine since i was a little girl. I come from a very grounded family from a mid size town in Champaign, Illinois which is about 3 hours south of Chicago. I grew up the oldest of four with strong Midwest values but always had big city dreams which I started turning into "reality" at a very young age. just a lot more fun that way!

Briefly describe your modeling career. Include agencies that represented you and markets your worked in.

I won the title of Miss Illinois Teen USA in 2010 and was 1st runner up at Miss Teen USA. I graduated high school a year a half early in order to focus my attention on appearances during this time. My first modeling experience was the day after I was crowned! I then started modeling for many different pageant lines including Sherri Hill, Jovani, MacDuggal, and many sponsors that represent the Miss Universe organization. After competing at Miss Teen USA I decided to move to Chicago since I had already graduated high school.

I had to prove to my parents that I could live on my own in a big city before they would let me make the big move to CA. During this time I decided to soak up as much of the city as I could. My father is friends with Bill Murray, who suggested I begin taking classes at Second City. I immersed myself in every class they had to offer from intensives, to stand up, to musical improv. I fell in love with the improv world so I also began taking classes at iO theater as well. I also took Meisner classes at Black Box Theater, and many on camera classes. At the end of the year I moved to California and started my journey in the beautiful sunny state which i now call home. I signed with Wilhelmina the first year I was out here and have been with them ever since. I started working right away and have modeled for many different lines including Vince, Volcom, Zappos, Hot Topic, Mentos, Adidas, Seventeen Magazine, Sketchers, Naven, etc..

When did you catch the acting bug?

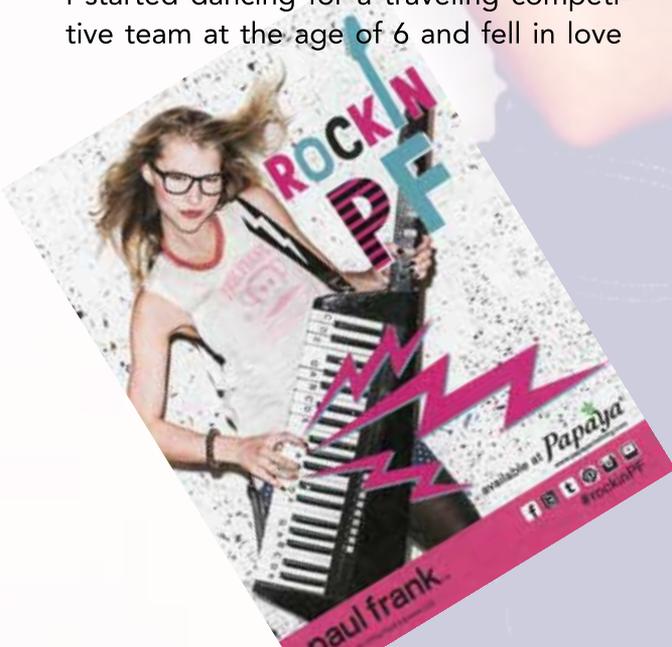

I caught the acting bug at a very very young age. I always had the urge to change who I was and what I wanted to do...which I never figured out what to call until recently... an actress! ha! I had my parents put me through everything under the sun including gymnastics, tennis, golf, softball, dance, cheerleading, track, piano, horseback riding etc.. The only thing that truly stuck the longest was dancing. I started dancing for a traveling competitive team at the age of 6 and fell in love with the art of dance and performing on-stage. I kept up with competing on the traveling team for about 11 years. My first acting gig in los angeles started at the end of that same year after signing with Wilhelmina. I was taking acting classes and one of my teachers sent me out on a small audition since I did not have representation theatrically yet. I ended up actually booking the LEAD in that film which is how I then finally met my managers now at LuberRoklin!

Was it easy making the transition from modeling to acting?

It was quite easy for me to transition into an acting career since I had an immense amount of improv and on camera training in Chicago. Right now I am working on a lot of different projects. I'm still with Wilhelmina Modeling Agency and am now represented theatrically with Innovative Artists. I am working with two amazing companies called Essential Living Foods and Zao Certified Organic Makeup. With my career as a model and actress I believe it is extremely important to take care of my body. I have a strong passion for health and longevity which is why I have partnered up with these two amazing companies. ELF is one of the top superfood suppliers in the world which offers all organic premier products! ZAO Organic Makeup is an eco luxury makeup brand made in Italy from 100% natural origins.

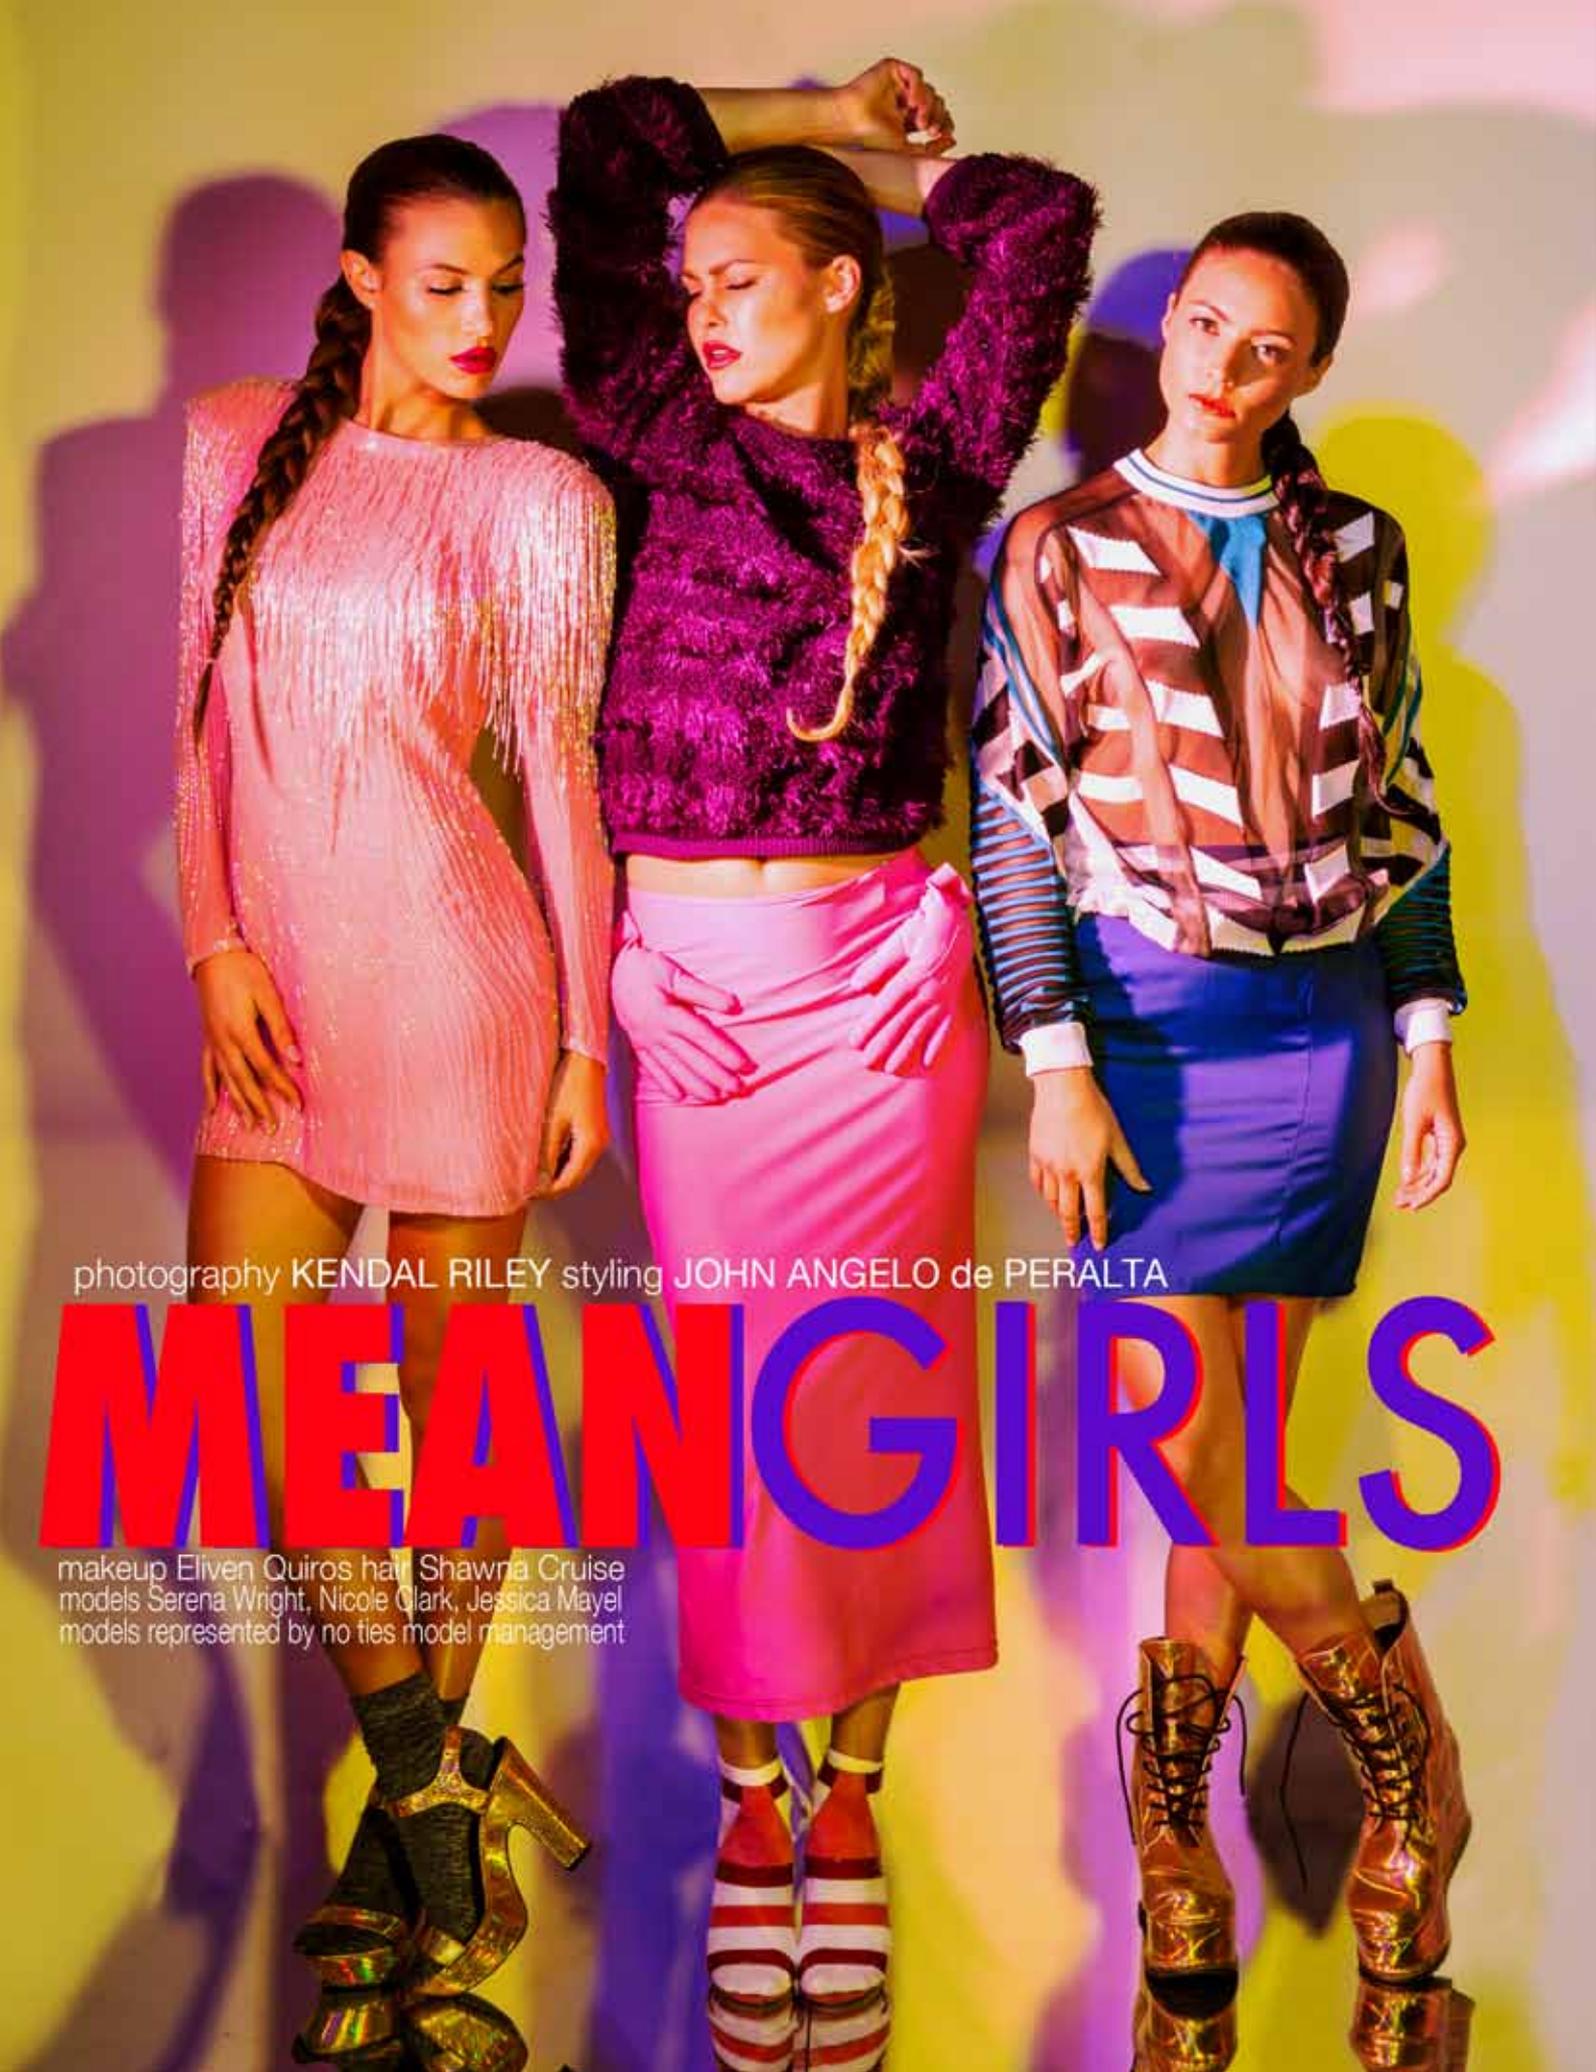

They go beyond organic being chemical-free, cruelty free, gluten free, and vegan. My skin has never been a fan of makeup until ZAO entered my life! I can now say I wear makeup to nourish, renew, and rejuvenate my skin... who else can say that? Im working on spreading the word about them to each and everyone in the hopes that one day EVERYONE will be using these products so we all can rid ourselves of breakouts and let our skin absorb nutrients instead of chemicals.

What can we look forward to seeing you in in the future?

2015 is going to be a big year for me! My first big feature film where I play along side Jennifer Lopez comes out in theaters this January! The movie is called The Boy Next Door and I play a high school girl named Alice. You will also see me on a new CW show called "The Messengers" in January and in Ted 2 next June!

What would you recommend to models who are trying to transition like you did?

To all models who want to make the transition into the acting world I say GO GO GO for it! I recommend taking improv classes, my training in this area has helped me greatly! If you're in LA I recommend taking classes at Lesly Kahn as well! The Comedy Intensive there will leave you ready to tackle anything. Once you get some training under your designer belt, you'll be ready to get representation and start paving another path along your current modeling career. Both paths in the modeling and acting world are very similar in my opinion. I believe both take a great deal of hard work and dedication, so in my book you're already half way there! Be fearless and don't let anyone or anything stop your heart from its desires! AND PLEASE OH PLEASE be healthy... love your bodies and fuel them with nutrition!

DOWN THE RABBIT HOLE

WITH ARTIST ACHRAF BAZNANI

WRITTEN BY SHELLI WRIGHT

WE DIG

I first came across this artist whilst randomly searching through images on the internet as we do. As I fell deeper and deeper into the rabbit hole of imagery I came across something or better someone that blew me away. I suddenly transported into a surreal little world I found both fascinating and mind boggling. The world of Artist, Achraf Baznani.

Achraf Baznani is a renowned Moroccan based photographer and filmmaker best known for being one of the first artists in the arab world to publish a photo-book based on surreal imagery. Both books, "Through My Lens" and "Inside My dreams", are surreal indeed as Baznani places himself within his photographs of everyday objects, scenes and amusing situations. When I say places himself, I mean just that. Have you ever stood next to your coffee cup? I mean really next to it? He has. For Baznani photos are not simply shots which have been captured and produced by the camera, but rather depictions and reflections of everyday life and problems one faces. Let your mind travel through the cinematic genius in these series of fantastical still images. Enjoy! I know I did.

BAZNANI.COM | Those who want to purchase his newest book may visit amazon.com/Inside-my-dreams-Achraf-Baznani/dp/1502856581/.

SNOW WHITE

Written by Andrea Cansler, Beauty Editor

BE THE FAIREST OF THEM ALL . . .

If your “mirror, mirror on the wall” moment is leaving you vexed and frustrated, never fear. We all want a glowing and bright complexion. However, with few exceptions, most of us aren’t born with fairy tale skin. Environmental factors, sun exposure, as well as hormonal changes can result in skin discoloration and fatigue. Lucky for us, today’s bounty of products and tools help break the spell. With holiday parties and travel, chances are you may miss out on your own princess-like rejuvenative sleep. However, the charmed combination of restorative anti-oxidants and skin brighteners acts as a “magic potion” to transform lackluster skin into luminescent! Pair with a regular cleansing routine and daily sunscreen to create your own happy ending! Prince Charming not necessary.

That girl on that show

jacket GUESS
shoes MICHAEL KORS

If you go to Taylor Spreitler's personal Instagram her tag line is "Yeah, I'm that one girl from that one show." This lovely actress has been working consistently here for over a decade, and yet very few people outside of the Industry or her fans really know who she is. After meeting her, I think she might be OK with that. She's a sweet young twenty-something with the world ahead of her yet also razor-sharp witted and grounded from the experience behind her. No doubt she won't be "that one girl" for much longer.

“Acting is not as glamorous as people would think... you have to love it.”

Q & A

BY SHELLI WRIGHT

Your first job?

I was around 7 and it was a Chucky Cheese commercial, so they closed the restaurant and I was able to play all day.

How old were you when you came from Mississippi to California?

I came to LA from Mississippi when I was 10 and now I'm 21.

What do you think about Los Angeles?

I love LA, I basically grew up here. My mom came with me then shortly after my sister followed. My dad stayed in Mississippi for work.

How long have you been on the ABCfamily show Melissa and Joey?

Almost 5 years, we just filmed our 95th episode last night.

What else can we look forward to seeing you in?

I have a feature film Amityville The Awakening coming out soon. I play Bella Thorne's best friend in the movie. I was a goth girl and had black hair which was weird. Every morning I woke up not recognizing myself. It was a bunch of fun, I'm a huge horror movie fan.

What's your favorite scary movie?

Rosemary's Baby

Is there a character you've played who you really associated with?

I guess I'd have to say Lennox on the show. But I'm not sure if I connected with her or if it's because I've played her for so long that she just became me.

What would you tell a young person with stars in their eyes?

Talk to your parents, you have to enjoy it. If you have the desire to try, you should first go to an acting class. It's not as glamorous as people would think. I've worked 15 hours a day for instance. It's a lot of hard work, so you have to love it.

Where do you see yourself in 5 years?

I would like to be Executive Producing my own show and starring in it.

Top of your list of who you'd like to worked with?

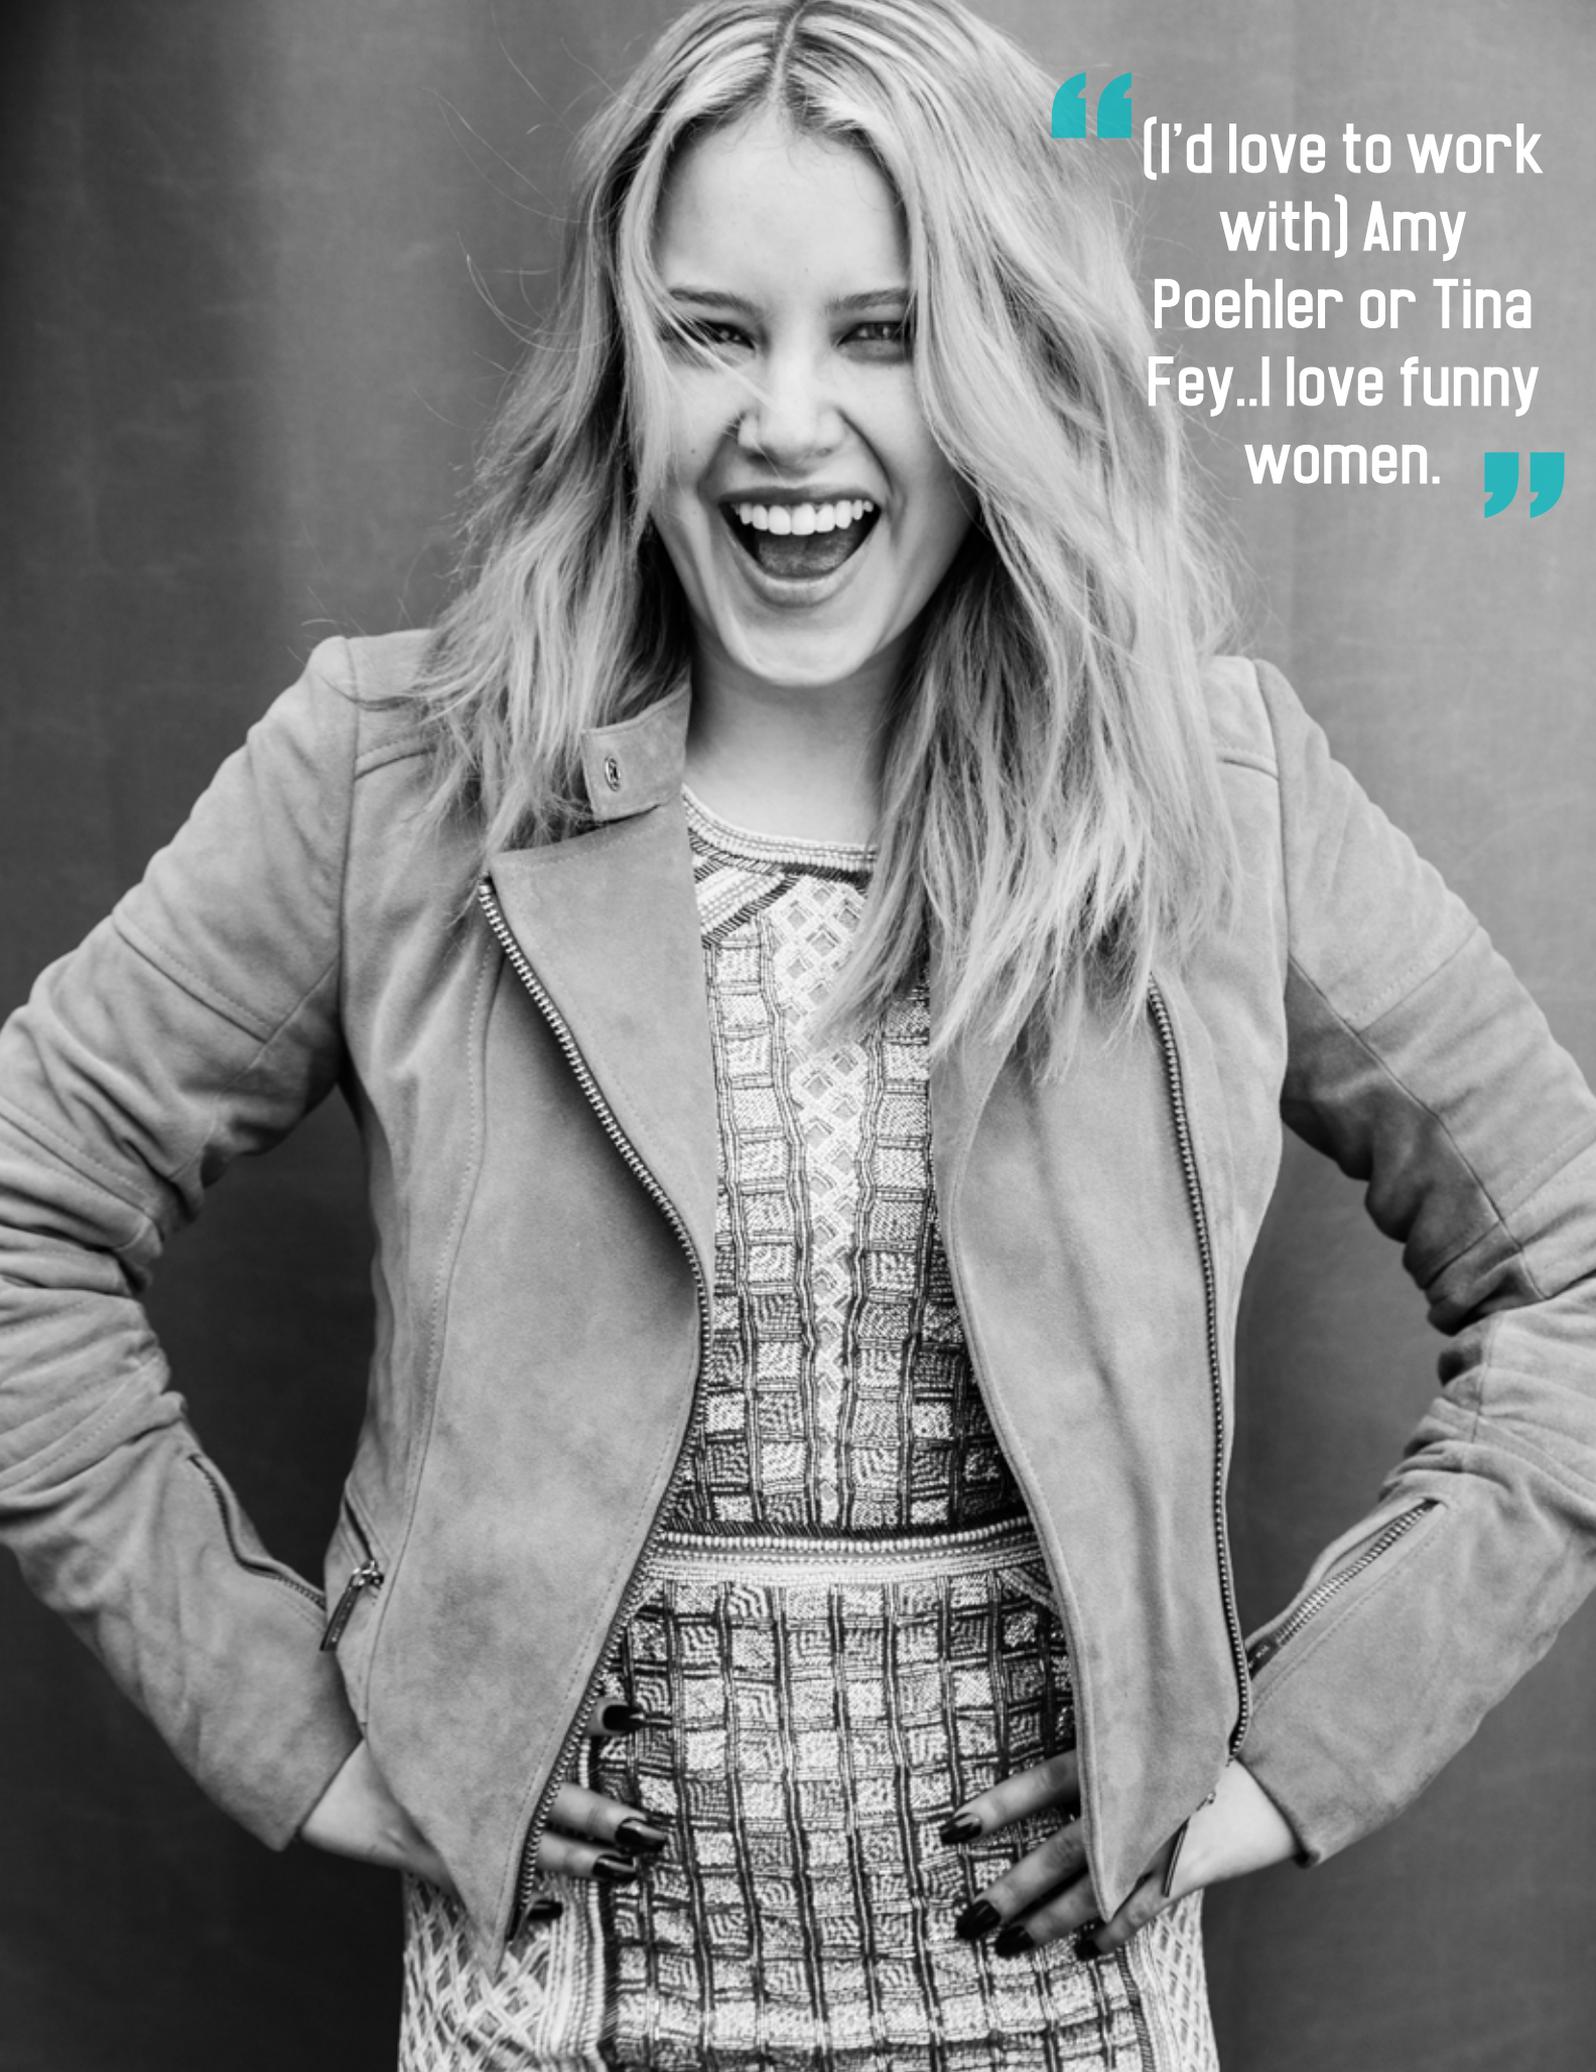

Amy Poehler or Tina Fey..I love funny women..

To make your eyes pop, select hues on the color wheel that contrast with your eye color: bronze shades which have a warmer tone flatter blue eyes, lavender or amethyst brings out green. Brown eyes? Everything works for you!

We all have our own styles. We also have people we recognize as having their distinctive style or allure or in men's speak...swagger. So as we head into the holiday season of parties and events perfect your swagger and maybe even implement some of our favorite actors' style into your kit.

The Bohemian

JOHNNY DEPP has made a career at doing everything HE wants to do so why would his style be any different. Sure, perhaps that hat is 30 years old and he's been wearing it since he was 20...or is it? Depp has a style that transcends decades, centuries even. He's always cool and a little disheveled. Sounds easy.

FILMMAKER
ADI SHANKAR

PHOTOGRAPHY BY WARREN REMOLADO

“I DON’T BELIEVE IN THE IMAGINARY LADDER AND I DON’T MEASURE MYSELF BY THE DOLLARS IN MY POCKET OR THE ACCOLADES ON MY WALL “

At just the age of 28, Adi Shankar made a brand for himself by producing a string of critically acclaimed, R-rated, violent action and crime feature films through his production company, 1984 Private Defense Contractors. His impressive filmography as an executive producer includes MACHINE GUN PREACHER, starring Gerard Butler and Michael Shannon, the critically-acclaimed commercial hit THE GREY starring Liam Neeson which opened #1 at the US box office and was featured on the New York Times “Top Ten Movies of 2012” list, which made Shankar the youngest producer ever to have a number one independent film at the box office. Later Shankar went on to add the critically-acclaimed cult phenomenon ‘Judge Dredd’ reboot, DREDD; the lauded gangster drama KILLING THEM SOFTLY starring Brad Pitt, the crime thriller BROKEN CITY starring Mark Wahlberg and Russell Crowe and the action-drama LONE SURVIVOR also starring Wahlberg. Now at the age of 29, Shankar’s releases include the crime drama A WALK AMONG THE TOMBSTONES starring Liam Neeson, the fantastical crime thriller THE VOICES starring Ryan Reynolds which is set to release following his 30th birthday early next year. I’ll admit it. We were intrigued.

I turn 30 in January. I have a deep-rooted fear that I will have peaked in my twenties and that it will be all downhill for me here on out.”

Q & A

BY SHELLI WRIGHT

HOW DO YOU END UP PRODUCING SUCH POPULAR FEATURE FILMS AT SUCH A YOUNG AGE?

I don't know. Emotionally it was like inviting three friends over and then having the gathering spiral into a full blown 2 day long block party. Things happen very quickly even though in the moment they seem to be operating in slow motion.

PRODUCER OR FILM MAKER (REFERENCE TO SHOOTING HIS OWN BOOTLEG FILMS) WHICH DO YOU PREFER?

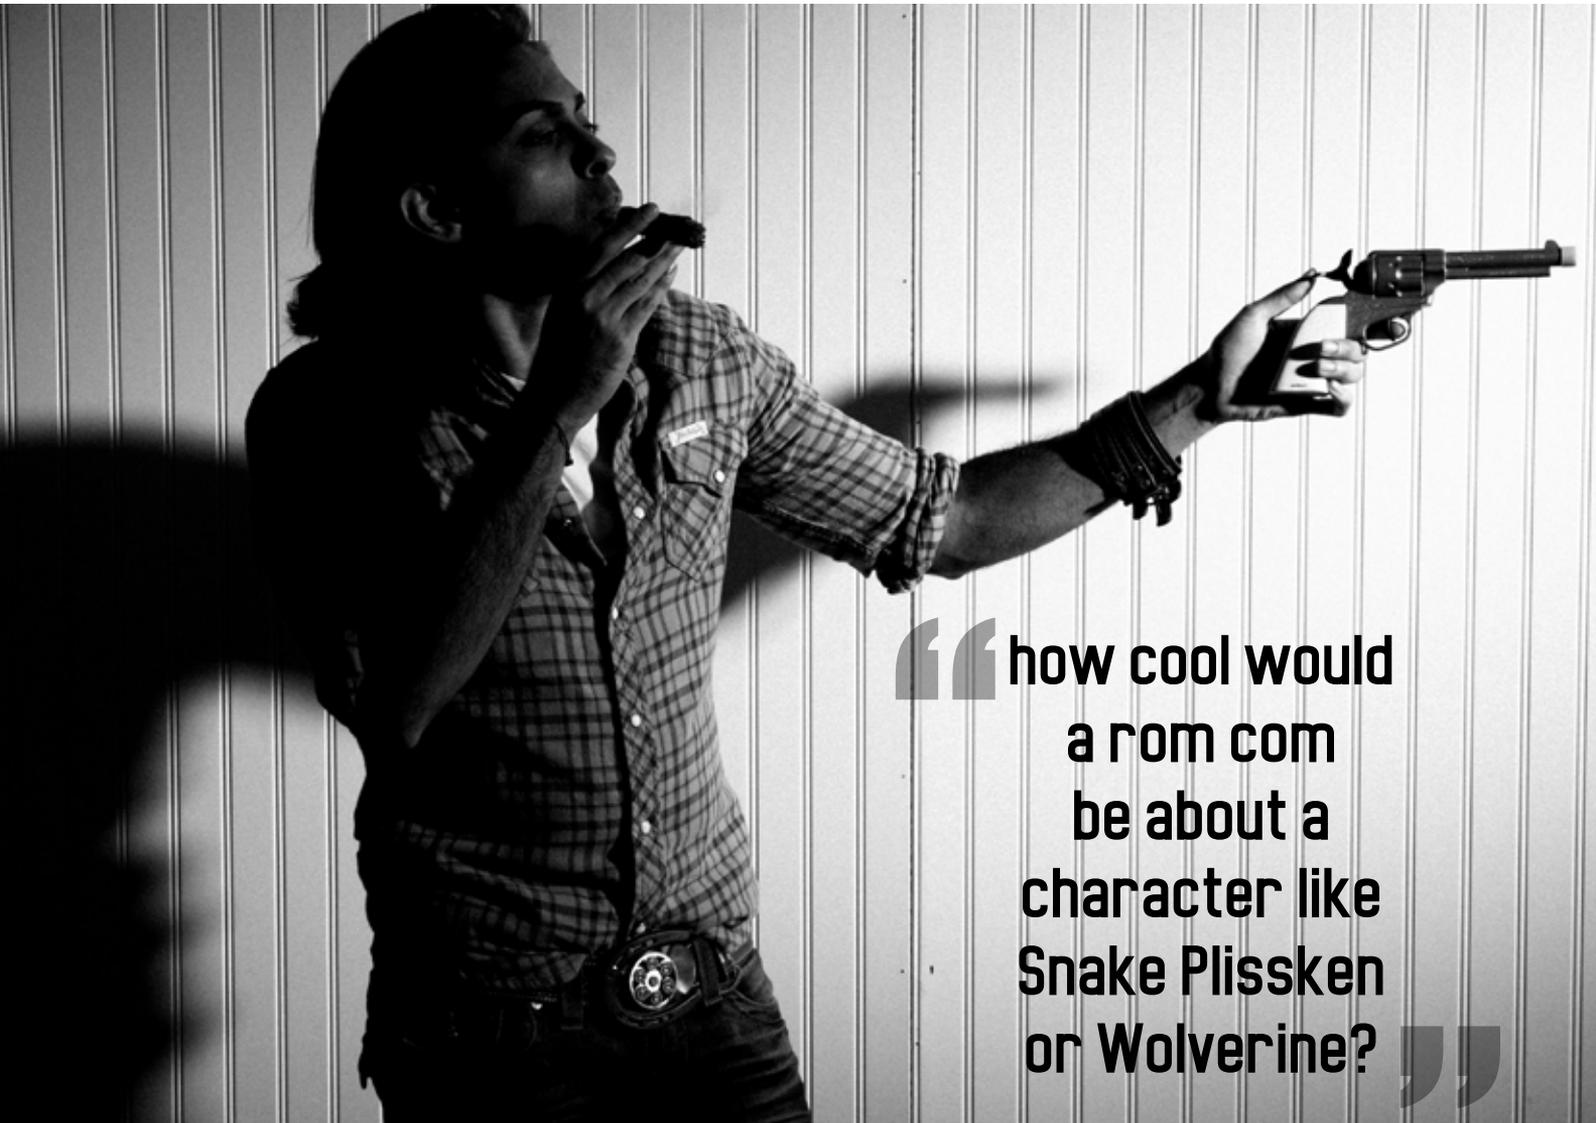

Filmmaker. The word producer doesn't mean anything because it means different things to different people, while filmmaker is a very literal phrase.

DO YOU SEE YOURSELF DIRECTING ONE OF YOUR FUTURE FEATURE FILMS?

I've actually been offered a couple of directing opportunities this year. They came out of the blue, I almost said yes because it would have been an interesting experience. I'll definitely direct in the future, but it will have to be something that I feel is groundbreaking.

ALL THESE PRAISES AND AWARDS AT SUCH A YOUNG AGE DO YOU HAVE A FEAR OF BURNING OUT OR GETTING BORED?

Yes I turn 30 in January. I have a deep-rooted fear that I will have peaked in my twenties and that it will be all downhill for me here on out.

“how cool would a rom com be about a character like Snake Plissken or Wolverine?”

THE VIOLENCE IN YOUR FILMS IS PROMINENT FOR SURE, DO YOU THINK THERE WILL EVER BE A ROM COM OR PERIOD PIECE YOU'D LIKE TO PRODUCE?

I would love to direct a rom com set in the late 90's. The rom com is a genre that has the largest audience and is ripe for reinvention. All my movies have been about anti-heroes, how cool would a rom com be about a character like Snake Plissken or Wolverine?

WHAT'S NEXT ON THE AGENDA?

I don't believe in the imaginary ladder and I don't measure myself by the dollars in my pocket or the accolades on my wall. The movie business as we define it today is dying. Innovation is on my agenda.

In addition to feature filmmaking, Shankar has also built an underground fan following through creating a series of groundbreaking viral "bootleg" online films including the Webby award-winning THE PUNISHER: #DIRTYLAUNDRY starring Thomas Jane and Ron Pearlman, which Collider.com featured as one of its "Top 5 Recently, Shankar released DARK JUDGES, a seven-part miniseries online for free, as the unofficial sequel to DREDD.

I've always been into fashion. So my style does reflect who I am, if not my music.

I just want to keep doing what I'm doing. I make music to play in my sets, to stay relevant and keep connecting to wider audiences. My goal is to just keep on touring and hopefully play the biggest festival in the world one day.

If the world is ones stage then surely we are the actors and actresses of our own homes and interiors, which can blur the boundaries of fantasy and reality. Atmospheric environments and sets have always been an essential part of cinema and the world of art. The creative person's living and working environment always reflects his or her ability to evoke a moment in time or a place in world of their Imagination.

Living and working in an unconventional way and making ones own way through the world is what theater, cinema and art inspired people do best. Here is a glimpse of that life- a loft tucked away in the Arts District of Los Angeles, the capital of movies and art of cinema.

A lived-in feeling shadows the entire space, from opened books scattered on tables and Lofts Less Ordinary!

BY LIFESTYLE CONTRIBUTORS PAIMAN AND SORMEH SALIMPOUR OF SORMEH LIFESTYLE

ottomans- its suggestion of an avid lover of books and art, a reader and researcher, a diarist recording every thought and every inspiration as if writing the script of their life time.

Each corner, a still life of its residence, being just as if it was designed as a set to record their lives- where one lives, eats, breaths and dreams.

Mixing classic luxury, urban cool, and old world romance with moody hues and sophisticated greys, there is a bit of ruggedness to this space with its concrete floors. Pushing of all ones senses to experience the theater of their dreams with all its theatricality. A symbol of a life lived freely in a nomadic soul, where taking your time and slow living counts as the most luxurious element that could exist.

Drawn to all things weathered, imperfect, flawed, and a bit damaged with a sense of history, nostalgia, and a raw factor that exists in every scene of daily life... that perfect imperfection, a reflection of a state of mind "To live a creative life we must lose our fear of being wrong"

This lofts residents have done their utmost to bring to life the vision taking shape in their minds and Imagination. Walking through this space, it seems as one has been transported to a world of intoxicating dreams, but in this case, it is real. There are no ceremonial entrance halls and grand staircases to create the expected grandeur, but there is the perfect fusion of art, fashion, cinema, and design.

NO FILTER

BY ANDREA CANSLER

It's no surprise that we live in a selfie-obsessed culture. There are over 215 million active Instagram users, over 10,000 photo-related apps, and recently Techinfigraphics released an infographic dedicated to all things selfies. It turns out people are taking ...wait for it... over one million selfies a day!

Even more interesting is the amount of people that are digitally altering their selfies. Thirty-six percent of people admit to retouching their selfies, and 13 percent of women said they retouch every single selfie they post. This photo-fluffing phenom is pretty common, but what about those times when you actually have to, oh I don't know, be face to face in the real world? After all, no one can travel around with his or her own "Hudson, Nashville, or Amaro" filters (at least not yet). In the meantime, we've gathered our favorite products to give you flawless looking skin that looks polished, pretty, and #nofilter picture perfect!

Q&A ON HOLIDAY ENTERTAINING WITH CHEF GEOFFREY ZAKARIAN

— by PAULINE MA —

JUST RECENTLY, CHEF AND TELEVISION PERSONALITY GEOFFREY ZAKARIAN (A REGULAR ON SOME OF OUR FOOD NETWORK FAVORITES LIKE CHOPPED AND THE KITCHEN) HELPED CELEBRATE THE RELEASE OF A SPECIAL RESERVE OF JEAN DE LILLET 2010—a delightful aperitif with notes of honey and citrus—by hosting an intimate tasting party in his food studio. The ambiance and aromas wafting through his studio got us thinking about the holidays, even though at the time it was only still October. We were excited to continue our conversation with Chef Zakarian on holiday traditions, tips on entertaining during a season of party-after-party, and a savory recipe fit for BISOUS taste buds.

Q&A

DEFINE YOUR VERSION OF HOLIDAY ENTERTAINING 101.

Always serve the best quality. I like to use place cards that double as menus so that guests can take them home as a memento. Always have the first course pre-set and the wine poured; it makes for an easy start to dinner.

A ZAKARIAN HOLIDAY LOOKS LIKE...

St. Barts with my whole family. We cook and go to the beach!

WHAT'S YOUR LIBATION OF CHOICE?

They're always the same: very cold champagne and gin martinis.

FAVORITE HOLIDAY FOOD?

I adore chestnuts. The smell of them roasting is just over the top "holiday." It's a staple on the streets of New York City.

Ah, chestnuts – they smell so fragrant and mouthwatering, but we just don't know where to start when it comes to making them at home. Luckily Chef Zakarian has bestowed upon us a three-ingredient recipe (yes, three) that will knock the socks off your guests when you put a bowl of these bites out at your next fete.

GEOFFREY ZAKARIAN'S CHESTNUT CHIPS

INGREDIENTS

2 lbs. fresh chestnuts
1 qt. clarified butter or vegetable oil
Fine sea salt
Serves 4 to 6

PREPARATION

Preheat oven to 400°F.

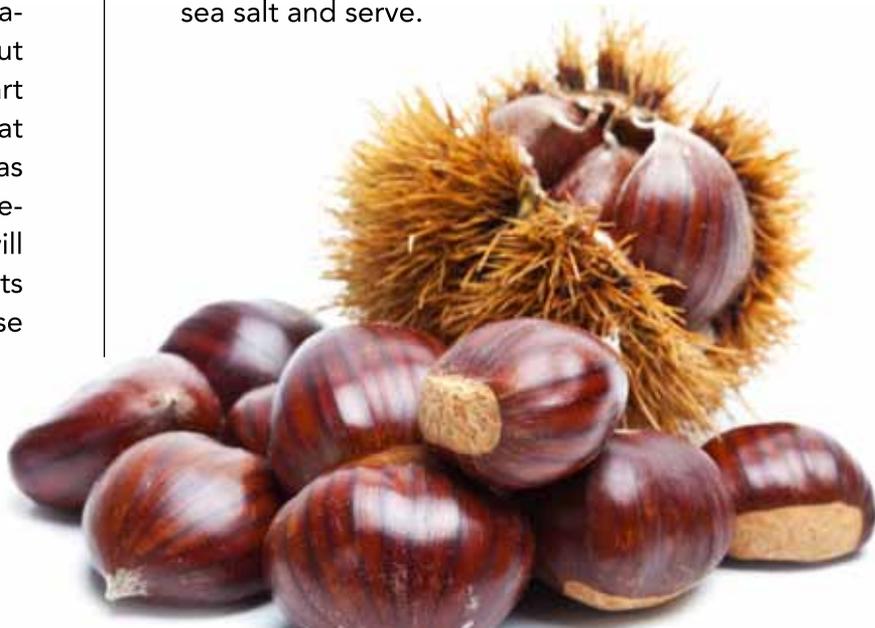

Score the chestnuts with an X-shape cut about 1/16-inch deep on the flat side. Place in oven for 15 minutes, until they begin to open up. When cool, remove the shells and inner peels.

Slice the peeled, shelled chestnuts about 1/8-inch thick with a very sharp mandoline (slicer), the shaving section of a four-sided cheese grater or (very cautiously) with a very sharp chef's knife.

Heat the clarified butter in a sauce pot over medium heat. (Alternatively, you can use an electric deep fryer).

When the butter reaches 350°F (use a candy or deep-frying thermometer to gauge temperature), submerge the chestnut slices to fry. Cook until golden brown, about 2 minutes.

Remove with a slotted spoon, and drain on a paper towel-lined plate. Season with sea salt and serve.

SHELLI WRIGHT - EDITOR IN CHIEF CREATIVE DIRECTOR

Shelli Wright is a Fashion Photographer residing in Los Angeles, California. After obtaining a BS in Journalism Shelli continued her studies in Paris at Parsons School of Design. Now working over 15 years in Southern Cal, Shelli decided to enlist director/editor and partner in crime Christopher Robin Bredesen to start what is now Bisous Magazine.
